

Mark Clayton for Stretford and Urmston

Seasoned campaigner Mark Clayton is seeking to be your Liberal Democrat Prospective Parliamentary Candidate for Stretford and Urmston Constituency.

Recently retired Mark now has more time to commit to a General Election campaign when it comes. In a long political career Mark has stood for council, Parliament and the European Parliament and has the drive and experience to enter the fray once more. Mark's key political achievements include: -

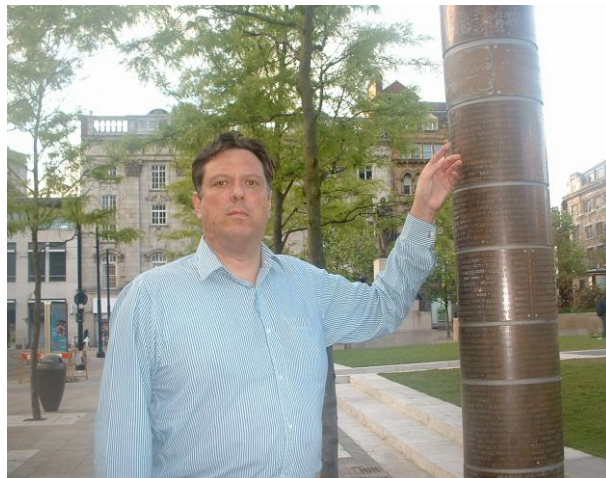

- 16 years as a councillor in neighbouring City of Manchester – eight in inner city Beswick and Clayton and [after boundary changes] eight more in Didsbury West (where he lives).
- Regional Agent in the 2019 European Elections resulting in Lib Dems gaining two MEP's.
- Agent or key roles in previous successful council and parliamentary elections.

Mark Clayton says “After disaster of Brexit, the current government has doubled down - trashing the NHS, the economy, environment, education, transport and much else. I hope we Liberal Democrats can be part of a new parliament righting the wrongs of the last eight years.”

I can't promise that the Liberal Democrats will hold power again after the General Election, but if elected I do promise to do my best to serve the people of Stretford and Urmston to the best of my ability. Please support me. R. Mark Clayton
